

PANL Announces Pharmacist of the Year Nominees

In communities throughout Newfoundland and Labrador, over 700 pharmacists work every day to provide important health care services to patients. The Pharmacist of the Year Award is a very special award given to a pharmacist who is nominated by the public.

PANL has received many stories of how your pharmacist has made a difference – for you, your family or your community. The pharmacist you nominated may work in your local pharmacy, in your hospital or be a pharmacist within Memorial's School of Pharmacy.

Nominees for the third annual Pharmacist of the Year Award are:

Gary Batt
Gregory Batt
Nancy Clarke
Garfield A. Collier
Renu Gill
Steve Gillingham
Nicole Goode
Renee Harris
Wanda Hindy
Diane Mayne
Barb O'Rielly

Trina Pollett
Ronald Pomeroy
Chris Randell
Leslie Ann Simms
Perry Small
Graham Tweedie
Dominion Pharmacy
Michelle Morgan
Nicole Knee
Sobeys Howley Estate Staff
Bertram Warr

Two pharmacists will be honoured - one as Community Pharmacist of the Year and one as Hospital Pharmacist of the Year. Winners will be announced at PANL's Awards Gala on Saturday, September 10, 2016.